In the Wilderness – Exodus 15:22–17:7

The Israelites were free! God helped the Israelites leave the land of Egypt where they had been treated very badly.

But now, where were they? The Israelites were out in the wilderness.

Where would they go now? What would they eat? What would they drink?

The Israelites started complaining to Moses: "Why did you bring us here? We have no food to eat!"

"God is with us," said Moses. "God will take care of us."

That night quail flew into the camp. Quail are small birds. The Israelites caught the quail and cooked them.

Everyone had plenty to eat! But God was not finished providing for the people.

The next morning, the people woke up. They saw some flaky stuff on the ground.

"What is it?" the people asked. The flaky stuff was like bread. The people ate some and called it "manna."

God provided for the people in the wilderness.

FAMILY SPIRITUAL PRACTICE

BIBLE PASSAGE: Exodus 15–17

Wonder: After reading the Bible story from the Bible or from the Celebrate Wonder Bible Storybook, wonder together. Ask: How does God provide for us today?

Do: Take some time to bake bread or another tasty treat to enjoy.

Pray: Dear God, thank you for always being with us. Amen.
