+CALL TO WORSHIP

James Maase

We live in a place of remarkable beauty, with lovely woods, flowery meadows, rolling hills, and delightful homes.

But when the church bells ring, they call us from one kind of beauty to another, and from the God who created the earth to the God who came among us in Jesus Christ and showed us the meaning of everything.

Therefore, let us worship the God of all creation and the God of our Lord Jesus. Let us share the peace of Christ with one another by saying, Peace be with you.

Peace be with you.

Amen, Amen.

+SUNG RESPONSE 92 vs. 2

And also with you.

Let us pray.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH 886 The World METHODIST SOCIAL AFFIRMATION

Bev Villines

We believe in God, creator of the world and of all people; and in Jesus Christ, incarnate among us, who died and rose again; and in the Holy Spirit, present with us to guide, strengthen, and comfort.

We believe; God, help our unbelief.

We rejoice in every sign of God's kingdom: in the upholding of human dignity and community; in every expression of love, justice, and reconciliation; in each act of self-giving on behalf of others; in the abundance of God's gifts entrusted to us that all may have enough; in all responsible use of the earth's resources.

Glory be to God on high; and on earth, peace.

We confess our sin, individual and collective, by silence or action:

through the violation of human dignity based on race, class, age, sex, nation, or faith;

through the exploitation of people because of greed and indifference;

through the misuse of power in personal, communal, national, and international life;

through the search for security by those military and economic forces that threaten human existence;

through the abuse of technology which endangers the earth and all life upon it.

Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy; Lord, have mercy.

We commit ourselves individually and as a community to the way of Christ: to take up the cross; to seek abundant life for all humanity; to struggle for peace with justice and freedom; to risk ourselves in faith, hope, and love, praying that God's kingdom may come.

Thy Kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

+GLORIA PATRI 70

MEINEKE

WORLD PEACE

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me;
let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God our creator, children all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now.
With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
to take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

+POSTLUDE "Lord, to Thee I Make Confession"

Friedrich Wilhelm Marpurg

*The Tower Bell Peal at the end of the service is silenced during the 40 days and Sundays of Lent.
The bells will return for the beginning and end of worship, Easter Sunday, April 17.*

LENT is a season of forty days, not counting Sundays, which begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on Holy Saturday. The word lent comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencten which means "to lengthen." It marks a time when the days begin to lengthen noticeably. The season of Lent is a season of preparation for the celebration of Easter. It calls to mind the biblical images of Jesus' forty days in the wilderness prior to the beginning of his public ministry; the Israelites' forty years of wandering in the wilderness before entering the promised land; and the forty days and nights of rain that set Noah and his family afloat on the ark.
