Dr. Todd Renner came to White's Chapel in 2003 while finishing his master's degree at Brite Divinity School at TCU. As Co-Pastor, Renner assumes the primary preaching/teaching responsibilities for the Bridge community at White's Chapel and works hand-in-hand with Dr. McKellar in the sculpting and implementation of the church's strategic vision and ministries. A native of Florida, Renner moved to Texas to attend Baylor University where he received his B.A. in Religion (Hebrew Bible and Semitic Languages). He completed his Master of Divinity at Brite Divinity School (TCU) and took his doctoral degree at the Graduate Theological Foundation (South Bend, IN). Renner is an ordained Elder in Full Connection with the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. Renner and his wife, Keri, have two sons: Caleb and Ford. In his spare time, he enjoys writing, hiking, rock-climbing, and embarrassing himself at golf.
