TRUNK OR TREAT

THANK YOU to everyone who made Trunk or Treat possible – small groups and adult Sunday school classes who hosted trunks, church members who brought candy, youth and midyouth that had trunks and ran games, those who helped with sound, machines, signage, passing out bags, ushers who made sure to get people where they were going, and our amazing custodial staff. Because of your help we saw over 1,250 people from our church and community come through our trunk or treat! Fun was had by all, many of whom don't have a regular church they attend. It was a great way to welcome them to PHUMC!

Best Trunk – Adults – Lynn Monk, Billie Rutherford, Sylvia Borchert and Sunny Hawk with their "Pirate's Cove Trunk"

Best Trunk – Youth – 9th Grade Girls with their "Minions Trunk"

Introducing Our New Piano

PHUMC is excited to announce the addition of our brand new Steinway concert grand piano to our historic sanctuary. The new Model B (6'11") concert instrument is the top-of-the-line baby grand piano from Steinway. Considered to be the very best American-made piano, and a favorite of concert pianists, concert halls and churches around the world. PHUMC now joins the ranks of many other churches in Arkansas that have this Steinway model in their sanctuaries. All of the money used towards the purchase of this instrument came from special Music Funds designated to the music ministry area: Adventures in the Arts income collected over the years, and private Foundation funds from earnings accrued by two Music and Arts Endowments. This exquisite piano will bless our worship services and special music presentations for years to come.
